

2021 Early Voting Frequently Asked Questions:

2021 Primary Election

For the 2021 Primary Election, you can vote in person before Election Day if you are a registered member of the political party holding the primary election.

What is Early Voting?

In New York State, voters can vote in-person before Election Day at an Early Voting site in their county.

Who can vote early?

All registered voters can vote early.

When can I vote early?

Early Voting in New York State will begin prior to the June 22nd Primary Election. The early voting period will be from: Saturday, June 12, 2021 through Sunday June 20, 2021.

Where can I vote early?

You can vote in an early voting center in the county where you live. In Cayuga County, voters may vote at the Board of Elections Office, 157 Genesee Street in Auburn.

How will I vote during early voting?

Voting during early voting is the same as voting on Election Day. When you get to the early voting center, you will check in to vote, receive your ballot and vote as any other election.

There will be instructions available at the early voting centers to familiarize you with the ballot. There will also be a notice to voter and bill of rights. You may ask an election inspector to explain how to vote, or if you need any assistance.

If you vote during the early voting period, you are not eligible to vote on Election Day.

When will early voting results be posted?

No early votes will be counted before the close of the election on Election Day.

Can I still vote by absentee ballot?

Yes, if you are out of your home county, or if you live in New York City, are outside of the five boroughs, or if you are permanently or temporarily disabled, ill or are the primary care giver for one or more people who are ill or physically disabled, or a resident of a Veterans Hospital, or detained in jail awaiting Grand Jury action or incarcerated for an offense other than a felony you may apply for an absentee ballot.

How can I find out more about Early Voting?

You can contact the Cayuga County Board of Elections 315-253-1285 or the State Board of Elections at 518-474-1953 or www.elections.ny.gov.
