

Sheriff's Office Monthly Report – November 2020

Brian Schenck

Sheriff

- Members of our Sheriff's Office are extending No Shave November and continuing the charitable event through December. A number of our Road Patrol and Custody Division Members will be donating to charity in exchange for putting away their razors for the month of December. Our female Officers and Deputies will be allowed to paint their nails and have a streak of color in their hair during the charity event as well.
- The Centralized Arraignment Court at the jail was utilized for 32 court arraignments in November. Through the end of November, 512 detainees have been arraigned at the Public Safety Building.
- The Cayuga Lake Quilters Guild donated a supply of children's quilts for members of our Sheriff's Office to donate to area children in need. The quilts will be distributed in our community during the month of December. Thank you to everyone that helped make this possible.
- Members of our Sheriff's Office continue to partner with elected officials from Cayuga County, The City of Auburn, The Auburn Police Department, community stakeholders, and the public to evaluate our delivery of law enforcement services in Cayuga County under the NY State Police Reinvention and Reform Initiative. Please help us by completing our survey if you have not yet done so. It can be accessed by following this link:

- We continue to recruit Junior Deputies. Numerous children in Cayuga County were recognized during the month of November by members of our Sheriff's Office for helping others in our community. Each child was awarded a certificate and Junior Deputy Badge made available by the Cayuga County Deputy Sheriff's Benevolent Association.
