Section 5. It is intended that:
INTENTION.

(a) The apportionment and districting herein provided shall result in a County Legislature which will conform to judicial and constitutional standards of equality of representation. This reapportionment plan is adopted pursuant to authority of Article 2 of the Municipal Home Rule Law of the State of New York.

(b) The Legislative Districts herein described shall completely encompass all the geographical area of Cayuga County.

(c) The Legislative Districts described herein contain the total permanent population of Cayuga County as determined by the 1990 Official Decennial Census less inmates of State Prisons that exclusively have felons.

(d) No Legislative District shall include any geographical area which is included within the description of any other District.

Section 6. If the descriptions of the Legislative Districts do not carry out the purposes hereof because of unintentional omissions, duplications, erroneous names, street closings, or other changes or conditions, the County Legislature, at the request of any person or candidate aggrieved thereby, may, by resolution, correct such omissions, overlaps or other defects in the description of the Districts so as to accomplish the purposes and objectives of this Local Law.
CORRECTION OF MINOR ERRORS.

Section 7. The Cayuga County Legislature as existing immediately before the time this Local Law takes effect, shall continue to be the legislative body of Cayuga County until the expiration of the terms of the legislators in office,
PRESENT COUNTY LEGISLATURE.

Section 8. After this Local Law becomes effective, the populations of the Legislative Districts shall be submitted to a qualified weighted voting expert who will compute weighted voting numbers for each Legislative District. A weighted voting plan shall be computed for simple majority voting and a separate weighted voting plan shall be computed for two-thirds majority voting. The mathematical computation shall utilize the same computer program as used in connection with the present weighted voting system. The Cayuga County Legislature shall, by resolution, confirm the weighted voting plans as so computed.
WEIGHTED VOTING.

Section 9. If any portion of this Law shall be adjudged by the courts to be invalid, said judgment shall not affect the remainder thereof if the remainder is sufficient to carry out the intent of this Law.
VALIDITY.

Section 10. This Local Law is subject to Permissive Referendum and shall take effect as provided by law.
