Senior Caseworker

TITLE:	SENIOR CASEWORKER
JURISDICTIONAL CLASS:	COMPETITIVE
CIVIL DIVISION:	DEPT. OF SOCIAL SERVICES
ADOPTION: CSM	11/06/76
REVISED: CSM	02/18/2000, 10/12/05, 4/13/16

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES OF THE CLASS:

Under general supervision a Senior Caseworker makes social studies to identify the need for social services, and renders social services to clients. The Senior Caseworker may supervise a small group of subordinate workers and volunteers, and does related work as required. A Senior Caseworker provides professional social services work involving the determination and recommendation of the need for service, and the formulation and carrying out of plans to meet the individual problems of cases assigned. The functional duties are similar to those of the Caseworker, except that through training and experience, Senior Caseworkers have gained an expertise to handle more complex problems and situations with less direct supervision.

TYPICAL WORK ACTIVITIES: (Illustrative Only)

- Interviews applicants and persons referring cases of children needing care, supervision, or services;
- Recommends services necessary to carry out plans to meet the needs of individuals or families;
- Makes visits to applicants to ascertain the need for services;
- Visits client homes, foster homes, institutions, schools, and other locations and coordinates the delivery of services;
- Develops involved or complex social histories and a plan of treatment which, with supervisory approval, is the basis for delivery of the services;
- Formulates plans to meet the needs of individuals and/or families, supervises the implementation of said plans, and routinely reviews progress/deficiencies;
- Prepares written case summaries and reports for Court and may give testimony in Court hearings;
- Aids individual Caseworkers in formulating service and work organization plans;
- In each case, assesses individual safety, risk and changes in circumstances affecting the need for services;
- Studies the background and need for care of children referred, securing information from the child himself, the family, relatives, schools, churches, family courts and other agencies;
- Makes necessary collateral contacts with employers, relatives, friends, physicians, hospitals, and other agencies;
- When foster care is necessary, determines whether the child's needs can best be met in an institution or foster family home;
- Arranges for medical care of children in foster homes, takes children to doctors, dentists and clinics if foster parents are unable to do so;
