

Cayuga County Development Corporation Annual Operations and Accomplishments Report FY 2014

Introduction

The Cayuga County Development Corporation (hereinafter called the “CCDC” or the “Corporation”) was created in June, 2002 as a Not-For-Profit Local Development Corporation under Section 1411 of the Not-For-Profit Corporation Law of the State of New York, for the purposes set forth in Section 1141(a) of such law and whose formation and operation are exclusively for charitable purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. These purposes are to relieve and reduce unemployment, promote and provide for additional and maximum employment, to create better and to maintain job opportunities within Cayuga County and to and lessen the burden of government and act in the public interest.

The Office of the Agency is located at the Cayuga County Office Building, situated at 160 Genesee Street, 5th Floor, Auburn, NY, 13021. You can reach the CCDC Office at (315) 253-1276.

This document is being presented as the Annual Operations and Accomplishments (“Annual”) Report for the Cayuga County Development Corporation for the Fiscal Year ending 12/31/2014 in full compliance with the New York State Public Authorities Law (“PAL”) Section 2824-a, the 2005 NYS Public Authorities Accountability Act (“PAAA”) and the 2009 PARA. The goal of this report is to provide a written assessment and summary review of CCDC’s operations and accomplishments during FY2014. In some cases, this report will refer to and identify the publicly available (and web-posted) location of supporting reports or materials that provide the information cited. Collectively, this report and the cited materials include the following areas of concern:

I. Overview of Operations & Accomplishments

At the start of FY2014, the CCDC continued operations with its full Board of Directors (5 Directors, with staff and administrative support provided by two individuals from the Cayuga County Department of Planning & Economic Development (“CCPED”): Mr. Stephen F. Lynch, AICP, the Director of CCPED and the Executive Director of CCDC; and Ms. Suzanne Gauthier, Administrative Assistant to CCPED and Acting Treasurer/Acting Secretary of CCED.

Throughout 2014 the CCDC Staff worked with the Cayuga Economic Development Agency (“CEDA”) to market CCDC Loan Program to the Cayuga County business community with emphasis on outreach to the County’s rural and agriculturally-focused small business and industry community. The CCDC staff met with a number of promising loan prospects in 2014 and is continuing to pursue viable loan application in 2015.

On an administrative front, the CCDC support staff continued to monitor the CCDC financing of Auburn Community Hospital (undertaken in FY2013) and administer other ongoing CCDC obligations.

II. CCDC REVENUES AND EXPENSES FY2014

The CCDC initiated its own, independent annual financial audit of the Corporation using the services of a local CPA firm (Cuddy & Ward CPAs of Auburn, NY) procured in FY2014 through a competitive Request for Proposal (RFP) process with the authorization of a three-year contract for independent financial services approved by resolution of the Board.

The full CCDC FY2014 audit, including an analysis and overview of the CCDC Revenues and Expenses for the fiscal year, is available online at the CCDC webpage: <http://www.cayugacounty.us/Departments/Planning-and-Economic-Development/Economic-Development/Partners-and-Resources/Development-Corporation>). Copies are also available at the CCDC offices, Cayuga County Office Building, 160 Genesee Street, 5th Floor, Auburn, NY 13021.

III. CCDC ASSETS AND LIABILITIES FY2014

As stated above, the CCDC independent financial audit of the fiscal year ended 12/31/2014 also includes an analysis and overview of the CCDC Assets and Liabilities for the fiscal year, which is also available both online at the CCDC webpage (please see Section II above for website URL) and at the CCDC offices, Cayuga County Office Building, 160 Genesee Street, 5th Floor, Auburn, NY 13021.

IV. CCDC CORPORATION COMPENSATION

The CCDC is located at the Cayuga County Office Building in Auburn, NY and operates with staff support provided by Cayuga County. The primary staff members working with the CCDC on daily operation and administration are the CCDC Executive Director who is also the Director of the Cayuga County Office of Planning & Economic Development and the CCDC Acting Secretary & CFO/Treasurer who is the Administrative Assistant with the of the Cayuga County Office of Planning & Economic Development.

Neither the CCDC Executive Director nor the CCDC Acting Secretary & CFO/Treasurer receive any compensation at all by the CCDC. These individuals are paid fully by Cayuga County in their respective County positions detailed above. These individuals and appointed officers of CCDC are however typically reimbursed for certain expenses incurred in the performance of their duties to the CCDC such as mileage, etc.

In addition to these primary positions, the CCDC receives technical assistance from time to time through Cayuga County. This support assistance is provided at no cost to the CCDC.

V. OTHER INITIATIVES UNDERTAKEN BY THE CCDC IN FY2014

In addition to the general overview of CCDC loan program work described in Section I, the CCDC Board and Staff also engaged in the following activities:

- Coordination with the CCIDA on the continued development of the Aurelius Industrial Park infrastructure project. Although the project was substantially completed in FY13, additional work scopes and efforts will continue;
- As a local economic development entity, the CCDC continued close coordination and interaction with the Cayuga-Cortland Workforce Investment Board and overall workforce development initiatives;
- Review and Assessment of CCDC Internal Controls;
- Continued coordination and networking with Cayuga County small business concerns and manufacturing clusters; and
- Continued coordination and networking with the City of Auburn IDA and LDC.

VI. CCDC PROPERTY OWNED AND/OR DISPOSED OF FY2014

As reported annually, the CCDC does not own any real property and this remained the case in FY2014.

VII. CCDC Code of Ethics

The CCDC originally adopted a Code of Ethics on September 18, 2007 that established a high level of ethical conduct the Board of Directors, staff and associates for the Corporation to adhere to. This adopted Code of Ethics is reviewed annually by the Board of Directors and was specifically reviewed and ratified on October 18, 2011 when the CCDC Board revised its Bylaws. The Code of Ethics is posted online at the CCDC webpage:

The members of the board (the "Board") of the Cayuga County Development Corporation (the "Corporation"), a duly established public benefit corporation of the State of New York (the "State"), along with the officers and staff of the Corporation, shall comply with and adhere to the provisions of the Not-For-Profit Corporation Law of the State.

Further, no director, officer, or employee of the Corporation shall (1) accept other employment which will impair his or her independence of judgment in the exercise of his or her official duties; (2) accept employment or engage in any business or professional activity which will require him or her to disclose confidential information which he or she has gained by reason of his or her official position of Corporation; (3) disclose confidential information acquired by him or her in the course of his or her official duties nor use such information to further his or her personal interests; (4) use or attempt to use his or her official position to secure unwarranted privileges or exemptions for himself, herself or others; (5) engage in any transaction as a representative or agent of Corporation with any business entity in which he or she has a direct or indirect financial interest that might reasonably tend to conflict with proper discharge of his or her official duties; (6) not, by his or her conduct, give reasonable basis for the impression that any person can improperly influence him or her or unduly enjoy his or her favor in the performance of his or her official duties, or that he or she is affected by the kinship, rank, position or influence of any party or person; (7) abstain from making personal investments in enterprises which he or she has reason to believe may be directly involved in decisions to be made by him or her or which will otherwise create substantial conflict between his or her duty in the public interest and his or her private interest; and (8) endeavor to pursue a course of conduct which will not raise suspicion among the public that he or she is likely to be engaged in acts that are in violation of his or her trust.

*Approved and adopted on the 18th day of September 2007.
Amended and Ratified October 18, 2011.*

VIII. Assessment of the Effectiveness of CCDC Internal Controls

The CCDC is audited annually by an independent auditor. The CCDC review and approval of the audited financial statements is the responsibility of CCDC management and the Board of Directors and the FY2014 CCDC Financial Audit was approved by the CCDC Board on Wednesday, March 11, 2015. The CCDC Financial Audit is prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Financial information contained in the report and in the related, cited materials are available at the CCDC offices and online at the CCDC webpage.

CCDC has established an Internal Control Structure and the CCDC Board of Directors conducts an annual review and assessment of its Internal Controls as part of its review of the annual independent financial audit. The objectives of the CCDC Internal Controls and Structure is to provide reasonable assurance as to the protection of and accountability for assets, compliance with applicable laws and regulations, proper authorization and recording of transactions and the reliability of financial records for preparing financial statements. The Internal Control Structure is subject to periodic review by CCDC independent auditors in addition to the review by the CCDC Board and management.

The CCDC Board and management are committed to an ongoing assessment of the control structure and are focused on the following continuous improvements:

- Timely compliance with PAAA and new PARA throughout the fiscal year, including communication with CCDC independent auditors and general counsel to bring the Corporation in to a structured review and audit schedule ensuring full and timely compliance with statutory compliance, public reporting and transparency;
- Cross training of Agency staff (and Board) on PAAA and the new PARA and financial reporting requirements to establish checks and balances for meeting full compliance with scheduled reporting.

IX. CCDC INVESTMENT REPORT

Deposits and Investments

State statutes govern the Corporation's investment policies. In addition, the Corporation adopted its own written Investment Policy on September 18, 2007 which remains in place. Corporation monies must be deposited in FDIC insured commercial banks or trust companies located within the State. The CCDC Treasurer is authorized to use demand accounts and certificates of deposit. Permissible investments include obligations of the U.S. Treasury and obligations of New York State and its localities.

Collateral is required for demand deposits and certificates of deposit at 105% of all deposits not covered by federal deposit insurance. Obligations that may be pledged as collateral are obligations of the United States and its agencies and obligations of the state and its municipalities and school districts.

Total bank balances of the CCDC of $235,580 at December 31, 2014 are covered by FDIC insurance up to the limits. The carrying value of deposits at December 31, 2014 totaled $235,580.
