

Sheriff's Department

Brian Schenck

Sheriff

- It's typical for March to come in like a lion and go out like a lamb. Well, as we all have witnessed this was definitely not a typical March. As the Sheriff, I would like to take a few moments to commend all E-911 staff, our Sheriff Custody Officers, our Sheriff Deputies, and all our civilian staff for their dedication to our community in responding to COVID-19. I would like to thank our legislature, appointed officials, Emergency Management, Health Department and local health professionals, for their diligence in helping to prevent the spread of COVID-19 in our community by being proactive and socially responsible. I would also like to thank the citizens of Cayuga County for helping one another during this challenging time and for helping limit the spread of Covid-19 by following social distancing guidelines. We live in a great community full of people that are always willing to step up when there is someone in need. For that I am grateful.
- In March, several members of the Sheriff's Office along with one community member, were honored for their exceptional work. Custody Corporal Benjamin Laderer was recognized with a Divisional Commendation for his actions in locating and securing contraband in our jail, securing the safety of our facility. Deputy Sheriff Corporal Myers was recognized with a Letter of Recognition for identifying and arresting the most Driving While Intoxicated Offenders in 2019. Custody Officer William Buisch was recognized with a Divisional Commendation for outstanding service in our Custody Division as a booking officer and for going above and beyond to keep a dangerous parole violator from being released back into our community. Deputy Sheriff Brandon Androsko was recognized with a Sheriff's Commendation for his part in responding to a potentially dangerous suicidal subject call in December of 2019 and aiding in apprehending the subject with minimal injury to all involved. Also honored were Sgt. Tim Axton, Deputy Michael Baim and Deputy Jacob Slobe for their response to a suicidal subject threatening harm. Deputy Jerry Field and community member, Genoa Firefighter Tyler Bassett, were honored for their teamwork and response to an emergency where they acted together in performing lifesaving measures. Congratulations to all on a job well done.
- Lieutenant Michael Wellauer of the Sheriff's Office was honored by Unity House with the "Open Arms Award." This award will be presented to Lt. Wellauer at the Unity House's annual dinner in the future. He was nominated by Alyssa Militello for his patience, kindness and compassion and his work with those with disabilities in helping them understand how 911 works, how to de-escalate stressful situations and how to develop more constructive coping skills.
