

Sheriff's Office

Brian Schenck

Sheriff

- Call volume continues to increase as we experienced a slight increase from May to June. We are beginning to see an increase in complaints involving speeding and vehicle & traffic violations, especially in our villages. We will be stepping up enforcement in these areas.
- The month of June continued to be another month of great generosity from our community. Meals and treats were provided to our members by Brian and Amy Sweeney, Bonnie Borowiec, and Evan Maloy. Olivia Vitale provided beautiful Guardian Angel visor clips to our Road Patrol Members. Joe Calarco assisted our agency by providing hand sanitizer and face masks. THANK YOU ALL VERY MUCH! We appreciate the support we receive from our community.
- Five members of our Road Patrol Division completed their academy training in June and have begun their field training program. Please keep an eye out for Deputies Valerie Thurston, Abby Murphy, Brian Kelly, Joshua Green, and Donald Helmer as they begin partnering with our field training officers in July to patrol our community.
- The Sheriff would like to again remind people that we are able to check on elderly residents in our community – especially those in rural areas – that might not have family resources or other people to help. Please reach out at 315-253-1222 if you know of someone that you have concerns about and one of our deputies will complete a welfare check. With the recent heat and challenges for our elderly neighbors created by Covid concerns, it is more important than ever that we help those in need.
- Lieutenant Michael Wellauer was recognized recently by Unity House of Auburn for his patience, kindness, and compassion to individuals with disabilities being served by their agency. Lt. Wellauer has worked with many Unity House residents to help them understand how the 911 system works as well as provide de-escalation tools and coping strategies for stressful situations. Great job and congratulations Lieutenant!
- Corporal Joseph Ryan retired in June after many years of service with our Road Patrol Division. Corporal Ryan served the residents of Cayuga County as a Patrol Deputy, SWAT Team Member, Evidence Technician, Clandestine Lab Team Member, and a Field Training Officer. His final assignment was with our Criminal Investigations Division as an Identification Officer. We would like to congratulate Joe and wish him a long, happy, and healthy retirement!
- Sheriff Schenck challenged children in our community during the month of June to provide our agency with letters and pictures outlining how they believed we could end racism in our community and make it a safer place to live in. Numerous submissions were made and highlighted in the Auburn Citizen newspaper. Thank you to everyone that participated!
