

Sheriff's Office Monthly Report – December 2020

Brian Schenck

Sheriff

- No Shave November and December came to an end. A number of our Road Patrol and Custody Division Members put away their razors and raised money for Community Action Programs of Cayuga Seneca. Our female Officers and Deputies were allowed to paint their nails and have a streak of color in their hair during the charity event as well.
- Ten additional Automated External Defibrillators (AED's) were deployed to members of our Road Patrol Division. These life-saving tools will now be carried by all of our Deputies while on patrol and will be immediately available during a response to a medical emergency.
- A number of area children, organizations, and community members sent thank you cards, coffee, and treats during the holiday season. Thank you all for brightening our holidays!
- The Centralized Arraignment Court at the jail was utilized for 66 court arraignments in December.
- Christopher Ellinwood joined our Road Patrol Division. We were also joined by Eric Sharpsteen in our County Office Building Security Division. Welcome Deputy Ellinwood and Officer Sharpsteen!
- Our County Office Building Security Team was recognized with letters of commendation for going above and beyond this year during the COVID pandemic.
- Kristen Foster joined our agency as the Confidential Assistant to the Sheriff. Welcome Kristen!
- Custody Officers Nicole Evangelista and Alan Jayne were recognized for identifying and keeping contraband from entering into our jail. Their efforts had a positive impact on the safety and security of our facility.
- In our Road Patrol Division, Deputy Jerry Field was presented with a life-saving award for providing life-saving care to an unresponsive individual. Deputy Nikki Loveless was recognized for her response to an incident involving a critically injured hunter and Sergeant Brian Myers was recognized for his response to a report of a possible armed individual.
- Members of our Sheriff's Office partnered with the Auburn Police Department to distribute homemade quilts to area children for the holidays. The quilts were donated by the Cayuga Lake Quilters Guild. Thank you to everyone that helped make this possible.
- Members of our Sheriff's Office continue to partner with elected officials from Cayuga County, The City of Auburn, The Auburn Police Department, community stakeholders, and the public to evaluate our delivery of law enforcement services in Cayuga County under the NY State Police Reinvention and Reform Initiative. Our first public forum was held on Tuesday December 15th to gather community input. Please feel free to submit your feedback by completing our survey if you have not yet done so. It can be accessed by following this link:
